

ETGLD Libraries are reopening to the public!

Beginning April 19, 2021, the ETGLD Libraries will begin allowing patrons into the libraries on a limited basis. They will still be offering curbside services throughout the day.

The following services will be added inside the libraries: book and material browsing and checkout, printing and copying, public computers with time limits, Wi-Fi, library card applications and renewals, material holds pickup and checkouts, and technology and reference help.

Elroy and Garfield will be open to patrons according to the following schedule:

Mon-Fri: 11am-4pm

They will both still be providing curbside service according to the following schedules:

Elroy:

Mon-Thu: 11:00am-6:00pm

Fri & Sat: 11:00am-5:00pm

Garfield:

Mon-Fri: 11:00am-5:00pm

Safety Guidelines

- All patrons and staff are required to wear masks, even during Curbside interactions
- Limiting your visit to 30 minutes or less is recommended
- Each library will have a maximum occupancy limit
 - Garfield: 5 patrons at a given time
 - Elroy: 7 patrons at a given time
- Hand sanitizer will be provided throughout the library
- The libraries will be sanitized by staff throughout the day
- Plexiglass is installed at all circulation desks
- Furniture and computers are spaced a minimum of six feet apart
